

"EPOCH" DOULOUPAKIS 2018

Red Medium Sweet Wine

Protected Geographical Indication "CRETE"

GRAPE VARIETY

A pleasant medium sweet wine with herbal character. Cretan Red Muscat (40%), Cretan Kotsifali (20%) and Syrah (40%).

VINEYARD

In the area of Dafnes, near Heraklion (Crete), at 350 metres above sea level.

VINIFICATION

Classic red vinification in stainless steel tanks, at a temperature of 24°C to 28°C. Fermentation takes place separately for each grape variety. Concentrated must is added for sweetening.

AGEING POTENTIAL

It can be aged nicely up to three years.

TASTING

Wine with intense ruby-colour, herbal aromas and sweet taste reminiscent of dried fruits.

SERVING WITH FOOD

Should be served at about 18°C and is best enjoyed with Chinese cuisine, meat and sweet sauces, fruit or nuts.

Red medium-sweet wine that was released in 2003 under the brand name "Douloufakis Hmiglykos". It's label and name were changed in 2010.

The name "Epoch" derives from the corresponding French word (which has a Greek root). Of course it isn't related to the 4 seasons of the year, but it has reference to certain eras bearing a common trait.
