

"SAUVIGNON BLANC" DOULOUFAKIS 2019

White Dry Wine

Protected Geographical Indication "CRETE"

GRAPE VARIETY

Sauvignon Blanc 100% with a touch of Crete! The warm climate enriches the aroma and gives the wine body and soul, without taking away any of its zest and vivacity. This variety, among other international varieties, makes the most of the island's individual terroir, to reveal its character in a unique and most interesting manner.

VINEYARD

In the area of Dafnes, near Heraklion (Crete), at 350 metres above sea level.

VINIFICATION

Classic white vinification with fermentation in stainless steel tanks, at a temperature of 18°C.

AGEING POTENTIAL

It can be aged up to 5 years. It develops a surprisingly different character over time. Fresh fruity aromas morph into toasty nuts, earthy, mineral, honey.

TASTING

Gold-coloured with lemon glints. Ripe, melony nose. Firm, full-body textured. Crisp, clean finish. A nicely made Sauvignon Blanc with plenty of character and good balance.

SERVING WITH FOOD

Should be served at 9-10°C and is best enjoyed with fish, shellfish, chicken, pasta, pork chops or briny and sour cheese.

White wine that was released in 1996 as "Douloufakis Sauvignon Blanc", while its label changed in 2004, 2010 and 2015.
